

COMPANY VOLUNTARY ARRANGEMENTS

A Company Voluntary Arrangement (CVA) is a compromise of debts between a company and its creditors within a legally binding framework.

As an example, in very simple terms, if a company owes £100,000 to creditors, then it is possible to secure an agreement with the creditors that enables £60,000 (60%) to be repaid over a period of up to 5 years, with the balance of £40,000 (40%) to be written off. Many of our clients owe millions of pounds in tax, so you know that we'll be able to help you.

Most directors understand this process, having seen such companies as Clarks Shoes, Monsoon, Cineworld, Newlook, Poundstretcher, Pizza Express, Ann Summers, Pizza Hut, All Saints, Moss Bros, Virgin Active Gyms, Travelodge, Blacks and Byron Burger along with many other famous branded companies, enter into a CVA and survive.

There are many companies offering their CVA services. Putting together a basic CVA is relatively simple. Proposing a great CVA requires extensive expertise and a deep understanding of the company. Most CVAs that are proposed are dealt with by a production line type of company that churns out proposals. We are very different.

If you want a CVA to fulfil all of your objectives then you need a bespoke CVA based on achievable and predictable outcomes, not one that fits a template. This takes preparation and sometimes, "thinking out the box" can be an eye-opener!

Our consultants have been helping clients with CVAs for between 10 and 25 years. If you already know what you want and we will always try to get you the best results.

Whoever you use to help you with your CVA, you should always ask for proof that they can achieve their claims.
